

Dear Fellow Spartans,

As you might have heard recently, the California State University Chancellor's Office has published the Interim Systemwide Time, Place, and Manner Policy, and our university has published the SJSU Addendum Policy.

At this time, there may be questions, comments, or concerns regarding the policy. The A.S. Board of Directors is here to listen, and we will continue to advocate for you. Please read through the email President Teniente-Matson sent on August 19, 2024, or reference the provided links below to understand the full scope of this policy. As an institution with advocacy and activism in its roots, we recognize that your perspectives are crucial. We'll need to know and address important details, perspectives, and concerns. As such, we are making ourselves available to hear from you in the following ways:

- Upcoming Board Meetings Student Union Meeting Room 1A [3 pm - 5:30 pm]
 - August 28, 2024, September 11, 2024
 - Speak during the public forum at the start of our meeting
- Anonymous Feedback Survey
 - <https://forms.gle/ntZ8gMgJtqcgG7N57>
- A.S. Website for Office Hours and Board Contact Information
 - <https://www.sjsu.edu/as/departments/government/board.php>

If you have any questions, please email me or A.S. President Ariana Lacson at the addresses below. Thank you, and we look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Leonardo Plazola

A.S. Director of Student Rights and Responsibilities
