2023-2024 GRADUATE EQUITY FELLOWSHIP

Application Checklist and Form

Graduate Equity Fellowship program seeks to encourage and assist a diverse group of economically disadvantaged students in the pursuit and completion of their master's degree programs. It acknowledges students who have success in overcoming financial barriers to their education, and helps them to complete their program more quickly by minimizing their debt burden. It further seeks to promote opportunities for faculty to mentor students. Awards of $4,000 per student for the 2022-2023 academic year will be granted based on funding received from the CSU Chancellor's Office for the most qualified candidates.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST: See Application Guidelines for detailed information on each item.

Printout of the FAFSA/SAR or CADAA form. Complete this two-page application ONLY if it has been determined you are eligible to receive financial aid using the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) form or California Dream Act Application (CADAA) and, as determined by the Office of Financial Aid & Scholarships, have a financial need of at least $1,000.

Transcripts (official or unofficial)

All undergraduate and graduate coursework.

Personal Statement

A 500-word typed essay following the prompt assigned on the application.

Two Letters of Recommendation

Submit letters of recommendation from two SJSU faculty members. One is from your faculty mentor who identifies himself or herself as such in the body of the letter.

Letters may be emailed to the College of Graduate Studies as outlined in the submission requirements

Advancement to Graduate Candidacy (filed) or Graduate Equity Fellowship Graduation Plan approved by your faculty mentor or graduate advisor. List all courses you have taken in your program to date, those you plan to take during the 2023-2024 academic year, and any other classes you plan to take beyond the scholarship year.
