

Hi Counseling Community!

The deadline for submitting proposals has extended to Saturday, March 12th at 5pm. Please see more information about proposal submissions below.

- Thanks Symposium Planning Team

Greetings Counseling Community,

Please share with your networks:

CSA's 5th Annual Counseling Symposium is set for Saturday April 2nd, 2016. Please mark your calendars! Our agenda and program is forthcoming.

Two Symposium 2016 updates include 1) the Symposium theme and 2) the Formal Call for Proposals.

Our theme for this year's symposium is: Exploring Counselor Identity in the Context of Community.

This year's theme encourages us to define what makes us uniquely ourselves, both personally and professionally, while considering how our connections to colleagues, clients, and the larger community shape our counselor identity.

Call for Proposals:

CSA is still accepting program/workshop proposals in all counseling areas of specialization. If you previously completed our earlier survey indicating interest to lead a workshop, please also complete this formal survey as well.

Sessions will be 50 minutes in length and formats include:

Educational/Research Session: Present educational topics in a lecture format.

Panel Discussion: two or more panelists to lead a discussion and answer questions on a shared topic.

Workshop: an interactive session in which to engage in an in depth topical discussion and activity.

Roundtable: small group discussion and exchange about best practices.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: Sat. March 12th 2016 at 5:00pm pacific time.

Please forward this information to your networks and encourage workshop proposal submissions from students, professionals, professors and educators!
