

APPLICATION MATERIALS FOR THE 2015 H.B. MCDANIEL FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Henry Bonner (H.B.) McDaniel, the father of school counseling and guidance in California, was a Professor of Education at Stanford University. During that time he pioneered postgraduate training for California counseling and guidance personnel. These scholarships honor the legacy of educational excellence, leadership, and service of H.B. McDaniel, for whom the foundation is named. This year, the McDaniel Foundation is pleased to offer two unique scholarships:

- DALE C. BURKLUND MEMORIAL RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

The H.B. McDaniel Foundation honors the legacy of Dale C. Burklund through a research scholarship in his memory. Burklund, a school counselor and dean of students in Oregon, developed a unique career guidance program which is still used in many schools today. He earned his doctorate at Stanford, mentored by H.B. McDaniel. Dale was an original member of the McDaniel Foundation, serving as the group's secretary for 40 years. This scholarship recognizes the promise of graduate students in school counseling through research and counseling interventions.

- JAMES WILLIAM ALLEN MEMORIAL SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP

The Allen family has designated this annual service scholarship as a memorial to a school counselor and faithful supporter of the H.B. McDaniel Foundation. James William Allen, a school counselor in the Fremont Unified School District and husband of Dr. Jackie M. Allen, in the spirit of giving and service dedicated himself to work with all students and families to help young people attain their academic goals and reach their potential. This scholarship celebrates the outstanding service that school counselors provide for their students, families, and schools.

Statement Information

Henry Bonner McDaniel, the father of school counseling and guidance in California, was a Professor of Education at Stanford University. During that time he pioneered postgraduate training for California counseling and guidance personnel. These scholarships honor the legacy of educational excellence, leadership, and service of H.B. McDaniel, for whom the foundation is named. You may apply for

- a research scholarship based on a school counseling project you are working on or plan to carry out, OR
- a service scholarship based on service to a school or community that advances the profession of school counseling.

Please consider the ideals of H.B. McDaniel as you prepare the following essay statements:

1. Personal Statement: In 400 words or less, discuss how your personal background informs your decision to pursue a master's degree in school counseling. Please include any educational, familial, cultural, economic, or social experiences, challenges, or opportunities relevant to your academic journey. Tell your personal story with examples of your achievements and leadership, individual personality and character, and an indication of financial need.
2. School Counseling Issues Statement: In 600 words or less, discuss the crucial issues for school counseling in California, your future career goals, and the contributions that you believe you can make to the field of school counseling.
 - If you are applying for the research scholarship, please describe your project and/or intervention.
 - If you are applying for the service scholarship, please describe your service with underserved populations.

Please insert your statements in the corresponding sections below.
