About Us

Nurturing Wisdom provides one-on-one, in-home tutoring. Our customized academic, test prep and executive functioning tutoring has helped thousands of students achieve their educational goals. Our families love us because we get great results and give them lots of personal attention. Our tutors love us for the same reasons.

We offer. . .

- Flexibility: You'll set your own schedule and decide where you're willing to travel.
- Top-notch curriculum: We need tutors for all academic subjects, for standardized tests, and to teach organizational and study skills. You decide what you're willing to tutor and we'll teach you our highly effective tutoring strategies.

- Competitive pay with opportunities for increases: $60-$66 per 2-hour SAT tutoring session; $45-$50 per 1.5-hour middle school/high school academic tutoring session; $30-$33 per 1-hour elementary school tutoring session. Paid orientations and annual raises. You earn a higher hourly rate when you take on more students.
