* Classroom Protocols

Classroom Protocol

While engaging with peers and assignments, students are to be respectful of the unique characteristics and qualities that make each of us who we are. In class, discussion is welcome and encouraged, but comments found to be intentionally offensive, disrespectful, or combative are not allowed. Likewise, in-class discussions, texts/readings/viewings, and projects/activities may include materials that can be contentious and even potentially upsetting to you or others. We may encounter materials that differ from and perhaps challenge our ideas, beliefs, and understanding of reality. Students are encouraged to discuss issues about such materials with me. If for any reason such material causes you alarm, I encourage you to speak with me directly at your earliest convenience.

Excused absences: If you miss a day of class, then you miss it. If assignments are due the day you missed, you need to have any possible extensions arranged and approved with me beforehand. In-class writings cannot be made-up or turned in at a later date, as I partially track participation using those writings. Anyone seeking an excused absence must provide to me documentation from a legal, medical, or academic source (this includes athletics, clubs, etc) stating when and why you were absent.

Restroom breaks: If you need to use the restroom at any point during class, there is no need to ask, wait, or otherwise make a show of it. Simply leave and go do your business.

Cell phone use: If you need to use your cell phone to google something, text, etc, by all means. We all understand this is a classroom, however, and we're not here to engage with your cell phone activity. Be courteous to your peers and to me. If you need to take a call or something else that would interrupt class, kindly step outside.

Food and drink: I don't mind if you need to have a snack in class because reasons. Drinks are always fine, too (no alcohol, of course). What I do mind is bringing/ordering an entire meal to class. Show up late if you need to finish eating or bring enough food for everyone (I have zero allergies, FYI).

Additionally, any student that needs accommodations or assistive technology due to a disability should work with the Accessible Education Center \(AEC\) (<https://www.sjsu.edu/aec/>), and the instructor. If you have special needs or accommodations requests, see me as soon as possible. Failure to do so may result in interruption or slowing of accommodations process.

CSU COVID-19 Vaccine Requirement and Protocol

All students must submit their COVID-19 vaccination requirements and comply with the Presidential [Directive 2021-02 \[pdf\]](https://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/PD%20081821%20Student%20COVID%2019%20Policy%20REVISED%208%2016%2022.pdf) (<https://www.sjsu.edu/president/docs/PD%20081821%20Student%20COVID%2019%20Policy%20REVISED%208%2016%2022.pdf>) and CSU COVID-19 Policy (https://calstate.policystat.com/policy/11030468/latest/?mkt_tok=NjYzLVVLUS050TgAAAF_gklzrMX8plxXAqtcwpY5ITMSBKropI0_7T_gOvBzrchVR00_JHe-8CQyIQypJKMzenwjL7ca-X5aYcTPKu_pDSWxE5wvJWQgEAav5Ptv). This requirement includes completing the COVID- 19 vaccine primary series and booster shot, when eligible.

Please note: While masks are not required inside our classroom at this time, if anyone so chooses to wear a mask while in class their choice will be honored and respected. If guidelines change and masks are required in class again, there will be a zero-tolerance policy for anyone who refuses to wear a mask.

Should you test positive for COVID at any point during the semester, please contact me ASAP, so that we can make any necessary accommodations. The CDC recommends you remain home for a minimum of 5 days until you test negative- this recommendation needs to be taken seriously.

ENGL 1A - Course Description

ENGL 1A

First Year Writing is an introductory writing course that will help you understand the writing process and the goals, dynamics, and genres of written communication. Through interpretation and analysis of texts, you will learn to think clearly and write effectively as you give form and coherence to complex ideas. You will explore writing for various audiences and rhetorical situations.

Section 75

But what about those situations? Everyday we all have exchanges of ideas and voice, and those interactions can be communicated in a variety of ways. You've probably sent a tweet before. Maybe you've performed at a cafe for the new EP you just dropped. Perhaps you enjoy discussing the latest athletic event and the merits of the judging system. All fun things. But have you also driven by a billboard? Or watched a political debate? How about painfully struggled through the 30-second ad during your favorite show on [insert streaming service]? Each of those situations uses rhetoric to try and convince someone of something. And it all starts with writing.

In this course, we're going to examine how different audiences require different writing styles, tonality, verbiage, and how context can morph when multimodal elements are part of the writing experience. By exploring media, professional rhetoric, argumentation, and systems you'll become familiar with here at SJSU, you'll begin to have a better understanding of what rhetoric is, as well as what and how writing affects it. The goal of this course is to help you develop your voice, and also to articulate it effectively and persuasively by understanding the rhetorical situation of audience, purpose, and context, and by using the rhetorical strategies you learn and observe from others.

Program Policies

First-Year Writing policies are listed at the following website: <https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php> (<https://www.sjsu.edu/english/frosh/program-policies.php>)

Course Requirements and Assignments

Course Requirements, Time Commitments, & Assignments

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45-hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

ENGL 1A is a 3-unit course. That means we are signing up to do a minimum of 9-hours of study per week just for this class. 2½ hours will be class time. The remaining 7½ hours a week, you will work on your own or with your peers to prepare for class and complete reading and writing assignments. This class requires a minimum of 8,000 words, at least 4,000 of which must be in revised final draft form. I have designed the work using this math to guide us. I will refer to it often to help you manage this workload over the semester.

Media Report: Media of your choosing (possible presentation) - (GELO 2, 4, 5)

Choose an example of a written medium (film, song, poem, novel, autobiography, short story, graphic novel, newspaper column, etc.) and write a 2-page report, plus sources cited page (3 pages total). What about the writing works for you? How has it influenced works within and outside its medium? How does the work influence your own writing?

Critical Essay: Research and Argumentative essay (possible presentation) - (GELO 1, 2, 3, 4, 5)

Choose an example of rhetoric and write a 3-page report, plus sources cited page (4 pages total). Who is the intended audience? Does the source effectively or ineffectively accomplish its goal from an audience perspective? How could the example rhetoric have been improved?

Persuasive Writing: Cover letter, CV/Resume, etc. - (GELO 2, 3, 5)

Explore good (and bad!) examples of cover letters and resumes. Organize your experiences, skills, and accomplishments, as you learn how to write about and market yourself in a professional setting - often times, before you even know the audience.

In-class writings: Selection of writings from prompts given in class - (GELO 5)

Students will engage in writing activities in response to prompts given in class (no make-ups). You will also participate in peer review activities.

Workshops - (GELO 2, 4)

Small groups and entire class workshops will provide focused critique and analysis of existing works, mediums, and students' proposed writing projects.

Reading Responses - (GELO 1)

Students will reflect on and ask questions about that week's readings as they pertain to their own lived experiences (approx. 300-words).

Class participation

Discussions, peer reviews of presentations, attendance, etc.

Extra Credit

At instructor's discretion.

Grading Information

Determination of Grades

Grading, Late Policy, and Missed Work

This course must be passed with a C- or better, as a CSU graduation requirement. This is a course following the standard A-F scale, utilizing minimal grading. You must submit all work on time. Any unexcused late work will be graded down a full letter grade, after the announced deadline has passed. If there is a reason you cannot make a deadline (because life happens) contact me BEFORE THE DEADLINE, so that we may mitigate the situation with a plan of action.

Misuse of these policies by any one student will result in having this option removed for all students. Extra credit may be offered at various points throughout the semester at my discretion. All proposed regular assignment deadlines will be Mondays @ 1 minute before the start of class (unless otherwise indicated) with work uploaded to Canvas. Deadline dates and times are subject to change, but I will notify the class of any proposed changes in advance. While some assignments can be made-up for more points, others cannot as they are time-sensitive items and/or reflect your attendance/participation. Without prior notice, if you can't make it to class you forfeit those points for that day, so be wise about your time and responsibilities for the semester. Additionally, if you are more than 10-minutes late to class, you forfeit that days In-class Writing points.
