

Agenda for ENGL 112B October 14 & anticipating October 21

1. Announcements: On October 21, we will continue our discussion of We Were Here, using the prompt from Part II of October 7. The 7 book talk presenters for October 21 need to prepare since you're up next week – I'll be sending an email of reminders/guidelines for you. Watch for it on October 15.
2. Please be reading The Prisoner of Azkaban – it is a little longer, but it moves quickly.
3. Today – have your copies of Witness ready and follow the directions for reading as given on the handout I have prepared.

4. Open a Word doc and label this with your name, Witness writing, October 14. You will be answering questions/commenting on each act of Witness, answering/writing throughout the reading. Please get as much writing done between Acts as possible.
5. After we've read the play, we will do the final writing activity. We will all share our writing (I will be writing as well) —creating our own readers theatre. I will give you this prompt in class. All the writing for Witness and the reading you do earns a 10% of your overall grade – you need to submit this writing/email it to Canvas IF possible before you leave our class session today, but the latest should be by noon on Oct. 17.

6. For class on October 21 everyone should be prepared to share one response from Part II of the SSW on We Were Here. – 4:30-5:00
7. Reading of the play and writing - -5:00-6:45
8. Writing, creating, and reading of our own Readers' Theatre –6:50-7:15
