Course Description

This course is an introduction to United States national government. The course is designed to introduce students to the constitutional basis, institutions, politics and processes of United States government. Although the primary focus of this course is on modern United States government, in order to understand contemporary events it is essential to examine their historical antecedents and evolution. Thus, this course will begin by exploring the origins and early development of the Constitution and how it influenced the development of American democracy. From there we will see how the Constitution has affected our understanding of rights and liberties over time. After that we will learn about the three branches of our government, and examine how they operate in our current understanding of democracy and rights. Finally, we will explore how the citizenry can exert their influence on the political process.

GE Learning Outcomes (GELO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. GELO 1 (US2) Explain how political decisions are made, their consequences for individuals and society, and how individuals and groups may affect the decision-making process. Analyze the meaning and content of the democratic process as it has evolved in the United States and California, describe the foundations of the political system, the links between the people and government and the operations of California government.
2. GELO 2 (US3) Identify the tools of political action and collective decision-making at the local, state, national, and global level and articulate the values and assumptions that inform their civic engagement.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon completion of this course the student (you) will be able to:

1. explain the Constitutional institutions, structure, processes, and functions of government set up by the US Constitution and the California constitution, and explain how those institutions historically evolved.
2. define, cite and analyze: The Bill of Rights, The 1st ten amendments and the compromises of 1787, Famous Supreme court decisions vis a vis the Bill of Rights, How Judges Make Law, Judicial Activism versus judicial restraint, The clash between individual rights and the rights of the community.
3. Students will be able to differentiate between civil rights and liberties; define each and evaluate American democracy in its protection of and expansion of the rights. Recognize the significance of the the 14th Amendment as an augmentation to the Bill of Rights. Discuss and analyze how rights have impacted minorities and women, namely, African Americans, Latinos, Asian Americans, Native American, women, the elderly, the disabled.
4. Students will be able to define federalism, identify the major Supreme Court decisions the have contributed to its evolution, contrast the powers of the national government with those of the states, recognize and explain the role of the states in modern federalism and discuss the operation of and institutions of California's state and local government vis a vis the national government and discuss supremacy.
5. Students will be able to define and discuss the functions of: Interest Groups, PACS, political parties, the media, and other organizations in both national and state government.
6. Students will be able to define and analyze the relationship between the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial branches of government at the national, state and local levels, with an emphasis on the concepts of separation of powers, checks and balance, and judicial review.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

*We The People: A Concise Introduction to American Politics*, 11th edition, by Thomas E. Patterson; McGraw-Hill, 2015. ISBN: 978-0078024795 .

*Guide to California Government*, 15th edition, by League of Women Voters of California: League of Women Voters of California Education Fund, 2013. ISBN: 978-0963246516

Other equipment / material requirements

Please purchase four of the green Scantron forms, Form No. 882-E. They will be needed for the exams.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details can be found from University Syllabus Policy S16-9 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf>.

Your grade will be determined by (1) three exams, each worth 50 points, (2) an outline worth 10 points, (3) two papers, each worth 20 points, and a final exam worth 100 points

NOTE that University policy F69-24 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F69-24.pdf> states that “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading.”

In a course that examines American politics and government discussions are very important, especially since we are entering a presidential election year. You will be better able to learn from these discussions by having a command of current events. Please keep up-to-date with national and world events by reading daily newspapers and listening to the news. I anticipate spending time in many classes discussing the current political climate and events.

Grading Information and Policy

There is a possible total of 300 points. Your final grade will be determined by your total accumulation of points as follows:

Total Points	Percentage	Grade
291-300	97-100	A+
279-290	93-96.9	A
270-278	90-92.9	A-
261-269	87-89.9	B+
249-260	83-86.9	B
240-248	80-82.9	B-
231-239	77-79.9	C+
219-230	73-76.9	C
210-218	70-72.9	C-
201-209	67-69.9	D+
189-200	63-66.9	D
180-188	60-62.9	D-

Below 180 points is a failing grade. There will be no extra credit available. Please note that you must take all exams and turn in all assignments to pass the course. In addition, you must complete the multiple choice portion of the exams on the appropriate Scantron form. Exams that do not have the correct Scantron form will not be graded. Further, I will not give make ups for any of the exams except in the most extreme of cases (e.g. verifiable medical emergencies, etc.). It is your responsibility to make sure you are available to take the exams. Please retain ALL of your exams, papers, and other assessments until after you have completed the course and received your grade.

Note that “All students have the right, within a reasonable time, to know their academic scores, to review their grade-dependent work, and to be provided with explanations for the determination of their course grades.” See University Policy F13-1 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F13-1.pdf> for more details.

Classroom Protocol

E-mail: Each student must have an e-mail address which they check regularly. Please make sure you have updated your records in MySJSU. You must monitor your account on a regular basis. When I send out classwide messages it will be to this account. Failure to monitor this account may result in you missing important messages such as class cancellations, change of exam dates, and requests for timely information.

Attendance: Attendance will be taken. If you are not present when your name is called, you will be marked as absent. It is your responsibility as a student to be in class on time. Further, it is common sense that by not attending regularly, you will miss important lectures, clarifications, handouts, scintillating discussions and brilliant insights from your instructor and fellow students.

Exams: If you arrive late for an exam, you will have only the remainder of the period to complete the exam. Once the first person has completed the exam and left the classroom, no new exams may be started. You may not have any electronic devices (cell phones, laptops, mp3 players, etc) on your desk or otherwise be using them during the exam. Please have them off and stowed away in your backpack/pocket/purse.

Academic Freedom: Each student is strongly encouraged to participate in class discussions. In any classroom situation that includes discussion and critical writing, particularly about political ideas, there are bound to be many differing viewpoints. Students may not only disagree with each other at times, but the students and the professor may also find that they have conflicting views on sensitive and volatile topics. It is my hope that these differences will enhance class discussion and create an atmosphere in which students and professor alike will be encouraged to think and learn. Therefore, be assured that students' grades will not be adversely affected by any beliefs or ideas expressed in class or in assignments. Rather, we will all respect the views of others when expressed in classroom discussions.

Electronics: I allow the use of computers for taking notes, though it is not the best way to take notes <http://www.scientificamerican.com/article/a-learning-secret-don-t-take-notes-with-a-laptop/> . Other electronic devices are not allowed and must be put away. Serious students often complain of the distraction caused by their fellow students' web browsing, IMing (if that is a verb) or who are otherwise preoccupied by electronics in class. We have a limited amount of time together during the semester and we should maximize the utility of that time. Please respect the class and your classmates and do not use these devices during class.
