Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

*For all assignments:

- More information and detailed grading guidelines are posted on Canvas.
- APA 7th edition formatting is required for all coursework (double spaced, 1" margins, 12 pt Times New Roman font). Outside sources should be scholarly and should be cited in accordance with APA 7th edition requirements.

Class Participation/Discussions (5 x 7 points = 35 points)

According to University policy F69-24, "Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to ensure maximum benefit for all members of the class. Attendance per se shall not be used as a criterion for grading."

Throughout the course, students will have to engage in five Discussions on Canvas, worth seven (7) points each. Students are expected to have completed reading and homework assignments before each class to be able to discuss course content.

Quizzes (2 x 15 points = 30 points)

You will have three quizzes throughout the semester to test your knowledge on various forensic psychological concepts, principles, and facts. Quizzes will comprise of questions from, but not limited to, lectures, textbook, and the documentary.

Final Exam (35 points)

The final exam will not be comprehensive, but rather will focus on the last four chapters in the textbook.
