Course Description and Requisites

Introduces the development levels of speech, language, communication, and second language acquisition. Provides an overview of intersectionality, with a specific focus on language, race, and disability.

Satisfies: GE Area S. Self, Society & Equality in the U.S.

Prerequisite(s): Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or ENGL 100A / LLD 100A with a C or better (C- not accepted), completion of Core General Education and upper division standing are prerequisites to all SJSU studies courses. Completion of, or co-registration in, 100W is strongly recommended.

Classroom Protocols

Classroom Community Expectations

Make efforts to...

Turn in assignments on time. I use a 48-hour rule. If you require an extension for an assignment (NO QUESTIONS ASKED) I need a written request 48 hours before it is due. Only exceptions include emergencies (e.g. illnesses, accidents, family emergencies).
Respect your professor and your peers! Differences of opinions and/or perspectives are going to be a part of our time together and may happen during online discussions.

Practice self-care. There will be moments of seriousness, laughter, and discomfort that occur through readings and materials provided in this class. Please note that we will be using a brave space rather than safe space approach.

Make the most of our space and time together. Engage in the online discussions, complete readings and most importantly ASK QUESTIONS. As a professor, I don’t “hold all the answers” but I appreciate the engagement.

Program Information

Welcome to this General Education course.

SJSU’s General Education Program establishes a strong foundation of versatile skills, fosters curiosity about the world, promotes ethical judgment, and prepares students to engage and contribute responsibly and cooperatively in a multicultural, information-rich society. General education classes integrate areas of study and encourage progressively more complex and creative analysis, expression, and problem solving.

The General Education Program has three goals:

Goal 1: To develop students’ core competencies for academic, personal, creative, and professional pursuits.

Goal 2: To enact the university’s commitment to diversity, inclusion, and justice by ensuring that students have the knowledge and skills to serve and contribute to the well-being of local and global communities and the environment.

Goal 3: To offer students integrated, multidisciplinary, and innovative study in which they pose challenging questions, address complex issues, and develop cooperative and creative responses.

More information about the General Education Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) can be found on the GE website (https://sjsu.edu/general-education/ge-requirements/overview/learning-outcomes.php).

Course Goals

Course Learning Goals:

There are four goals for this course.

1. Students will develop knowledge of typical and atypical language development and the role of special education services in supporting individuals who are experiencing atypical language development.

2. Students will focus on the development of communicative competence, with a particular focus on the way in which speech and language develop and influence each other. As part of our discussion, we will consider dialectal variations, second language acquisition, and the impact of communication disorders on an individual’s ability to interact with and successfully express themselves with others.

3. Students will gain an understanding of both disability and language with an emphasis on social, historical, political and economic contexts. Through readings, lectures, and activities, students will understand how disability intersects with other social markers (race, culture, language, gender, sexuality) to inform identity formation.

4. Students will study how disability and language labels impact individuals in schools and societal contexts.

University Learning Goals

SGR1: An ability to consider the purpose and function of one’s degree program training within various local and/or global social contexts and to act intentionally, conscientiously and ethically with attention to diversity and inclusion.

SK2: Depth of knowledge required for a degree, as appropriate to the discipline.
IS3.1 Fluency with specific theories, assumptions, foundational knowledge, analytical and interpretive protocols, tools, and technologies appropriate to the discipline or field of study.

IS3.2 Skills necessary for the mastery of a discipline at the level appropriate to the degree and leading to lifelong learning, critical and creative thinking and practice, effective communication, thorough and ethical information gathering and processing, competence with quantitative and/or qualitative social sciences, quantitative reasoning and sciences.

AK: An ability to apply theory, practice and problem solving to new materials, settings, and problems.

California Council on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) Standards

In compliance with the California Teacher Credentialing Commission’s Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs) for the Single Subject Credential Program and Program Standards for the Education Specialist Instruction in Mild to Moderate Disabilities Credential Program, students will address, examine, and/or employ techniques that will help them develop the ability to meet the following Program Standards and Teaching Performance Expectations:

Program Standard 3: Educating Diverse Learners

Program Standard 11: Typical and Atypical Development

SJSU Studies – SELF, SOCIETY, & EQUALITY IN THE U.S. (Area S)

General Education Learning Outcomes (GELOs)

After successful completing the course, students shall be able to:

1. Describe how identities (i.e., gender, language, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability and/or age) are shaped by cultural and societal influences within contexts of equality and inequality;
2. Describe historical, social, political, and economic processes producing diversity, equality and structured inequalities in the US;
3. Describe social actions which have led to greater equality and social justice in the US (i.e. religious, gender, ethnic, racial, class, sexual orientation, disability, and/or age);
4. Recognize and appreciate constructive interactions between different people from different cultural, racial, and ethnic groups within the US

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)

1. Students assess and identify the educational needs and strengths of students with disabilities from diverse socioeconomic, cultural and linguistic backgrounds. (Introduce)
2. Students plan, design, implement and monitor linguistically and culturally appropriate instruction that meets the unique needs of students with disabilities (Introduce)

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
1. Describe how cultural and social variables influence the identity and behavior of individuals with disabilities and recognize and describe structured inequalities and struggles related to disability in racial, ethnic, and cultural groups.
2. Understand the heterogeneous world of disability and describe how religion, gender ethnicity, race, class, sexual orientation and age influence the experiences of persons with disabilities in the U.S. in terms of equality and inequality.
3. Understand how past/current social, historical, political, and economic processes have affected the rights and experiences of persons with disabilities in the US in terms of equality and structured inequality and the role they have played in formal/informal public policies and practices that lead to greater equality and social justice for person with disabilities in the US.
4. Define common linguistic terminology and understand the most prevalent theories of language acquisition.
5. Describe the stages of normal language development from preschool to the young adult years and identify challenges that can arise in language acquisition that can lead to speech and language delays or disorders.
6. Understand the relationship between language acquisition and biological processes, cognitive development, and the environment and understand linguistic diversity of different cultural groups.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

GE Area S: Self, Society, and Equality in the U.S.

SJSU Studies courses -- Areas R, S, and V -- help students integrate knowledge between and among disciplines. In Area S courses, students study the interrelationships of individuals, racial groups, and cultural groups to understand and appreciate issues of diversity, inclusion, inequalities, and justice in the United States.

GE Area S Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of an Area S course, students should be able to:

1. describe how identities are shaped by cultural and societal influences within contexts of equality and inequality. Examples include, but are not limited to, race, ethnicity, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, religion, disability status, age, generation, regional origin, national identity, language, and intersectionalities;
2. analyze historical, economic, political, or social processes that shape diversity, equality, and structured inequalities in the U.S. and reflect on one’s own identities and positions within these structures;
3. evaluate social actions which have or have not led to greater equality and social justice in the U.S.; and
4. engage in constructive interactions about social issues in the U.S. within the framework of equality and inequalities.

Writing Practice: Students will write a minimum of 3000 words in a language and style appropriate to the discipline.

Course Materials

Required Texts

Note: The 10th edition is required because previous editions do not contain the important revision in Chapter 11-Second Language Acquisition.

Note: A reserve copy has been placed both as an e-text through the SJSU Library and a physical copy for 24-hour loan. Visit the Course Reserves Website: (https://reserves.calstate.edu/sanjose/course/362207360002919) for more information

<td>Reading Reflections</td>
<td>Over the course of the semester, students will choose one reading from the assigned reading for each reflection week. They will submit a 1-page summary and 1-page reflection of the reading. Specifically, students should connect reflections to (a) personal lives including experiences with education, and (b) ideas generated about language development and/or teaching of students with disabilities at the intersections of language and disability. Two of these reflections will be FORMAL analytical papers (worth 15 points each to meet Area S writing requirement), and three will be INFORMAL choice reflections (worth 10 points each).</td>

| Stakeholder Application Project | Students will choose an educational stakeholder (teacher, family member, or service provider) and conduct a brief interview with them using structured questions that ask about their experiences supporting a person with language development support needs. Students will then apply this knowledge to analyze a language sample to identify phonological processes and calculating MLU, and prepare a presentation for the stakeholder based on the interview, and MLU calculation. For credential students implications must be made for the Individualized Education Plan and aligned with grade level standards. | GELO 1, 2, 3, 4

| I-Search Final Paper | Students will use the course texts, assigned other readings from class, and at least 3-5 other sources (research articles or books) to compose an I-Search paper on a topic related to the Area S content from this course. Students may choose from the topics listed below to conduct their research for the written paper:
· Communication and Disability
· Disability and Language Status
· Race, Gender and Disability
· Disability and Culturally Sustaining Practices

Students will compose a 4 page, double spaced, Times New Roman, 12-point font paper with references in APA format on their chosen topic. Papers topics will be informally shared in class. | GELOs 1, 2, 3, 4

 Extra Credit may be offered on a rolling basis in the class and will not count against class points but add to total score at the end of the course.

Course Requirements and Assignments (Required)

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 40 hours over the length of the course (normally eight hours per week) for instruction over 5 weeks, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practice. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

✅ Grading Information

Grading Information

1. This class contains a combination of formal and informal assignments. Informal assignments will be exempt from grammar/spelling point deductions. All formal written assignments, however, must meet academic and professional standards for quality and must be written following APA guidelines: Times New Roman font, size 12 point, double-spaced, one-inch margins, and free of spelling and grammar.

2. All assignments are due on the dates assigned and submitted via CANVAS. Email or paper copies will not be accepted. Requests for an extension for any circumstances (NO QUESTIONS ASKED) must be received in writing 48 hours before an assignment due date or it will be considered late and lose 3 points per day late. It is important to communicate with your instructor to get support with your assignments in advance of the due date as much as possible.

3. All written work must be turned into CANVAS using Microsoft Word (no Pages or other programs accepted). Microsoft Word is available to all students FOR FREE from the university. Please see Information Technology for information on how to download Word for your personal device. Laptops preloaded with Microsoft Word are also available for check out daily from the Martin Luther King Library with a valid student ID.

🏠 University Policies

Per University Policy S16-9 (PDF) (http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S16-9.pdf), relevant university policy concerning all courses, such as student responsibilities, academic integrity, accommodations, dropping and adding, consent for recording of class, etc. and available student services (e.g. learning assistance, counseling, and other resources) are listed on the Syllabus Information (https://www.sjsu.edu/curriculum/courses/syllabus-info.php) web page. Make sure to visit this page to review and be aware of these university policies and resources.
