Intro to Language Development and Disability Section 01 EDSE 102

Spring 2023 3 Unit(s) 01/25/2023 to 05/15/2023 Modified 01/13/2023

Note: All assignments are to be uploaded into Canvas and are due by 11:59 pm on Tuesdays. Peer reviews are due in Canvas by 11:59 pm on the Tuesday after being assigned.

Assignments:

1. Exit Tickets (7 @ 5 points each)

Each in-person class session will include activities and discussions on major topics. Students are expected to read the assigned readings prior to class, and complete an exit ticket at the end of each class. Note that exit tickets cannot be "made up" later.

2. Discussions (7 @ 10 points each)

To demonstrate understanding & share ideas on major topics students will submit a written response to 7 discussion questions over the course of the semester. Discussion topics will focus on GELOs 1 - 4. Topics will include how identities related to disability are shaped by cultural and societal influences.

Students should be able to describe how historical, social, political, and economic processes produce diversity and structured equality/inequality in the U.S. Students should also be able to describe social actions which have led to greater equality for persons with disabilities in the US, particularly those from diverse racial, ethnic and gender backgrounds.

Following the due date, you will be assigned 3 posts from classmates right after the assignment is due, and this is for you to read and post a response to each. This step is not optional, as peer reviews deepen the learning for both the reviewer and the reviewee.

- 1. The 3 peer reviews are randomly assigned by Canvas at midnight after the due date. Therefore, if your discussion post is late, the 3 peer reviews must be manually assigned by me at a later date. Excessive late posts may result in a loss of points for each late discussion.
- 2. The assigned peer reviews show up on your Canvas account. according to your Canvas notification preferences.
- 3. Note that assigned peer reviews need to be completed so that Canvas recognizes them as completion of an assignment. Therefore, follow the directions to submit an assigned peer review, and be sure to get confirmation that it has been completed.
- 4. The discussion posts comprise a portion of the GE writing requirement for this course. As such, each post must be at least 143 words for a total of 1,001 words for the semester. Discussion posts not meeting the 143 word minimum will not receive a grade.

3. Research Papers (2 @ 60 points each):

To demonstrate and integrate an understanding of course content specifically related to GELOs 1-4, two research papers containing at least 2 new references must be included. Each of these papers must be 1,000 words in length to fulfill the Area S writing requirement. This is around 2 & 1/3rds of a page visually, single-spaced, and 4 pages double-spaced. The assignment rubric is in Canvas.

4. Application Assignments (3 @ 25 points each):

To demonstrate knowledge of major concepts students will complete three short application assignments. Rubrics for each application project is in Canvas.

- 1. Listen to a preschool child and identify at least 3 phonological processes observed
- 2. Calculate the MLU from a language sample with at least 3 morphological structures and identify which of Brown's stages it is
- 3. Create a presentation for parents to support vocabulary development based on the readings and the Hart & Risley research

5. Quizzes (10 @10 points):

To demonstrate understanding of key course concepts students will complete quizzes in Canvas. The quizzes focus on content from the textbook. Each guiz will remain open in Canvas until the last week of instruction this semester, and students may retake guizzes as many times as desired. The highest score is included in the course grade.

Course Description and Requisites

Introduces the development levels of speech, language, communication, and second language acquisition. Provides an overview of intersectionality, with a specific focus on language, race, and disability.

Satisfies: GE Area S. Self, Society & Equality in the U.S.

Prerequisite(s): Passage of the Writing Skills Test (WST) or ENGL 100A / LLD 100A with a C or better (C- not accepted), completion of Core General Education and upper division standing are prerequisites to all SJSU studies courses. Completion of, or co-registration in, 100W is strongly recommended.

Letter Graded

* Classroom Protocols

This course is hybrid with asynchronous online and in-person classes. Course materials (other than textbook readings) such as announcements, syllabus, handouts, assignment instructions, lecture slides, etc. are available on Canvas. You are responsible for regularly checking both Canvas and your SJSU email (the one that ends with "sjsu.edu") to learn of any updates. For Canvas support, please review the Canvas Student Resources (http://www.sjsu.edu/at/ec/canvas/student_resources_new/index.html).

- 1. Make every effort...
 - a. When you have questions, (1) consult your syllabus, (2) consult your CANVAS announcements and emails, then (3) send me your question (messages via Canvas are preferred)
 - b. Submit assignments on time.
 - c. Respect your professor and your peers! Differences of opinions and/or perspectives are important to understand. Listen with an open mind. Always be respectful.
 - d. Practice self-care. Be mindful of when you may need to step away, take a breath, and then return.
 - e. Also note that we will approach diversity from an abundance mindset rather than a deficit mindset.
- 2. Use netiquette in online conversations.

If you want to know more about netiquette, you can find information on the Netiquette Homepage at http://www.albion.com/netiquette/.

■ Program Information

Welcome to this General Education course.

SJSU's General Education Program establishes a strong foundation of versatile skills, fosters curiosity about the world, promotes ethical judgment, and prepares students to engage and contribute responsibly and cooperatively in a multicultural, information-rich society. General education classes integrate areas of study and encourage progressively more complex and creative analysis, expression, and problem solving.

The General Education Program has three goals:

- Goal 1: To develop students' core competencies for academic, personal, creative, and professional pursuits.
- Goal 2: To enact the university's commitment to diversity, inclusion, and justice by ensuring that students have the knowledge and skills to serve and contribute to the well-being of local and global communities and the environment.
- Goal 3: To offer students integrated, multidisciplinary, and innovative study in which they pose challenging questions, address complex issues, and develop cooperative and creative responses.

More information about the General Education Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) can be found on the GE website (https://sjsu.edu/general-education/ge-requirements/overview/learning-outcomes.php).

O Course Goals

The goals of this course are fourfold: First, students will develop knowledge of typical and atypical development and the role of special education services in supporting individuals who are experiencing atypical development. Second, students will focus on the development of communicative competence, with a particular focus on the way in which speech and language develop and influence each other. As part of our discussion we will consider dialectal variations, second language acquisition, and the impact of communication disorders on an individual's ability to interact with and successfully express him or herself to others. Third, students will explore the influences of disability upon social, historical, political and economic contexts. Through readings, course materials and activities, students will study how diversity contexts impact individuals with disabilities. Last, students will study interactions between people with disabilities from diverse cultures, ethnicities, or racial groups as they work together to reconstruct ideologies of disability.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs)

GE Area S: Self, Society, and Equality in the U.S.

SJSU Studies courses -- Areas R, S, and V -- help students integrate knowledge between and among disciplines. In Area S courses, students study the interrelationships of individuals, racial groups, and cultural groups to understand and appreciate issues of diversity, inclusion, inequalities, and justice in the United States.

GE Area S Learning Outcomes (GELOs)

Upon successful completion of an Area S course, students should be able to:

- 1. describe how identities are shaped by cultural and societal influences within contexts of equality and inequality. Examples include, but are not limited to, race, ethnicity, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, religion, disability status, age, generation, regional origin, national identity, language, and intersectionalities;
- 2. analyze historical, economic, political, or social processes that shape diversity, equality, and structured inequalities in the U.S. and reflect on one's own identities and positions within these structures;
- 3. evaluate social actions which have or have not led to greater equality and social justice in the U.S.; and
- 4. engage in constructive interactions about social issues in the U.S. within the framework of equality and inequalities.

Writing Practice: Students will write a minimum of 3000 words in a language and style appropriate to the discipline.

Course Learning Outcomes (CLO)

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- 1. Describe how cultural and social variables influence the identity and behavior of individuals with disabilities and recognize and describe structured inequalities and struggles related to disability in racial, ethnic, and cultural groups
- 2. Understand the heterogeneous world of disability and describe how religion, gender ethnicity, race, class, sexual orientation and age influence the experiences of persons with disabilities in the U.S. in terms of equality and inequality
- 3. Understand how past/current social, historical, political, and economic processes have affected the rights and experiences of persons with disabilities in the US in terms of equality and structured inequality and the role they have played in formal/informal public policies and practices that lead to greater equality and social justice for person with disabilities in the US
- 4. Define common linguistic terminology and understand the most prevalent theories of language acquisition.
- 5. Describe the stages of normal language development from preschool to the young adult years and identify challenges that can arise in language acquisition that can lead to speech and language delays or disorders.
- 6. Understand the relationship between language acquisition and biological processes, cognitive development, and the environment and understand linguistic diversity of different cultural groups.

Determination of Grades

Research reports must meet standards of academic and professional quality as outlined in APA format for reporting on research. They must be typed, double spaced, paginated, and free of spelling and grammatical errors. You must cite all of the work.

Application projects # 1 and #2 must be submitted utilizing the form provided in the assignment.

Research papers must follow the template provided and must adhere to APA guidelines.

In order to keep up with the pace of the class, turning in late assignments is strongly discouraged. Late assignments may accrue a 10% penalty for each week past the due date they are submitted. If you have a significant emergency (e.g., illness, house flooding, etc.), please let the instructor know as soon as possible so arrangements can be made.

There are no extra credit options in this course.

Rubrics for research papers and application projects are in Canvas

If you are taking this course to fulfill requirements for a teaching credential you are reminded that you should earn a grade of B or higher to meet CTC standards.
