B. ACUI Regional Conference Report (Cynthia Fernandez-Rios)

Cynthia Fernandez-Rios informed the Finance Committee that she recently attended the ACUI Regional Conference. Ms. Fernandez-Rios explained to the Finance Committee about her experience at the conference. Ms. Fernandez-Rios explained the Colorado State University’s SHAPE Program noting that the program consists of a one-day professional development event, a customer Service one-on-one, the student union orientation event, and the student development workshops throughout the semester. Ms. Fernandez-Rios noted that the workshops were not mandatory but there were incentives if students attended the identified number of workshops per semester.

Ms. Fernandez-Rios noted that she is putting together a proposal for other Student Union Board of Director student representatives the opportunities to attend these professional development conferences, like ACUI Regional Conference.

C. Presentation of First Quarter Financials (David Alves)

David Alves presented the Finance Committee with the Statement of Net Position noting that cash is up $3.4 million compared to First Quarter of 2018. The accounts receivables are down $50,000 compared to last year and this is due to timing. The prepaid expenses are up $100,000 which is substantial. This was due to in 2019 the Student Union paid a medical premium in September for October. Also impacting the prepaid expenses was the maintenance expenses that have not been billed to Chartwells yet. Mr. Alves continued explaining the variances and details of the long-term investments, funds in trust, fixed or capital assets, and the Liabilities, which included accrued payroll and related expenses, expenses associated with SRAC.
operation. Mr. Alves noted that overall the Student Union First Quarter financials are healthy and are where the expenses should be.

Tamsen Burke presented the Finance Committee with the details of highlights from Statement of Revenues, Expenses and Changes in Net Position noting that the service fees were up $225,000 due to SRAC Memberships. Rental income is up $200,000 and there is still about $125,000 expected from Athletics for rental from April 2019 to October 2019. Operating expenses, wages and benefits are up $623,000 due to the SRAC operation. Supplies, utilities, business services (custodial contracts), project expenditures all have a slight increases due to the addition SRAC operation. Ms. Burke noted that while the First Quarter shows an operating income loss, there are timing issues with regards to funding and lease payments. Ms. Burke noted that overall the Student Union looks very healthy and on target.

D. Flexible Spending Accounts Program
Tamsen Burke presented the Finance Committee with the details of the Flexible Spending Accounts program noting that the Student Union currently does not offer a flexible spending account program to its full-time employees. Ms. Burke noted that the annual financial impact to the Student Union is $3,200 annually. Instituting this program is beneficial for our employees because there are parking reimbursement and medical expenses are a tax benefit.
