

TIMPANY CENTER

Code of Code of Conduct

Violations of the Timpany Center Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, up to and including suspension, immediate removal, or revocation of future access to the Timpany Center.

COVID- Per California regulation, all members are required to both receive full vaccination and wear an appropriate face covering, both as defined by the Center for Disease Control, at all times, including the pool and pool area.

The Following are considered violations under the Timpany Center Code of Conduct:

- Failure to maintain personal cleanliness or good hygiene.
- Overuse of perfumes, body oils or cologne that is offensive to the TC patrons or staff.
- Possession, use, sale of alcohol, controlled substances or firearms on the TC property.
- Camping out or sleeping in the TC parking lot and surrounding areas.
- Attempting to use the center for washing clothes or dishes or attempting to prepare food unless given express permission by the TC Staff.
- Running in the halls or engaging in other physical behavior that would cause damage to self or others including intentional acts of physical assault.
- Refusing to check in at the front desk and/or refusal to show TC staff proof of membership.
- Activities that infringe on the rights of Timpany Center staff and patrons such as discrimination of any kind including but not limited to derogatory prejudice and unwelcome actions, words, jokes or comments based on an individual's sex, race, ethnicity, age, religion, sexual orientation, disability or any other legally protected characteristics.
- All other inappropriate conduct which would make other patrons or staff feel uncomfortable or threatened (incident exposure, sexual acts, sexual intercourse, obscene language or acts of pornography etc.) including physical, emotional, verbal and mental abuse.
- Attempting to enter the facility (pool, gym, locker rooms etc.) during non business hours.
- Failure to abide by the TC rules and regulations.
- Blocking Timpany Center entrances, exits, aisles, or other areas that may cause interference with or restrict public access. This includes leaving bicycles, wheelchairs, walkers, or similar devices in areas that block emergency accesses and pathways.
- Wearing inappropriate or revealing clothing (including footwear).
- Leaving packages, handbags, laptop computers, luggage or any kind unattended in or around the TC grounds.
- Intentional damage or destruction to TC materials or property, or the personal property of patrons, staff, volunteers, or guests of the TC.
