Meeting #5: Reflection and Next Steps

Reflecting on Our Experience Using AI In The Various Parts of the Writing Process
How did it go? What was useful? Not useful? Scary good? Scary bad?

Introduction to the Second Half of the Workshop
What we're going to do next.

Introduction to Writing and Writing-Intensive Course and Assignment Design
What we know about designing writing and writing-intensive assignments and courses.

Brainstorming Where and How AI Could be Ethically and Productively Added to the Writing Processes in Our Classes
How can AI fit into all this?

Set Up Sharing and Thinking Schedule For Next Two Meetings
Who gets to tell us about their stuff, and when.

Homework
1. Decide on a course syllabus and 2-3 assignments you will revise in the second half of the workshops.
2. Submit copies of the syllabus and assignments in their current, unrevised form.
3. Start thinking about how you might add AI to that course and the writing processes of those assignments.
4. First sharers: get ready to chat with us for 15 minutes next week.
